GOLF TOURNAMENT TO BENEFIT HOSPICE OF DAVIDSON COUNTY

Lexington, North Carolina, May 14, 2009 – Wynncom of Lexington will host a benefit golf tournament for Hospice of Davidson County on Wednesday, June 17, 2009. For the second year in a row, Wynncom has teamed up with HODC to hold a tournament benefiting residents of The Henry Etta and Bruce Hinkle Hospice House, the county's only inpatient facility providing end-of-life care for the terminally ill.

Melissa Wynn, Wynncom Vice-President of Sales, commented on the upcoming event, "We really value the level of healthcare services that Hospice of Davidson County offers our community. We hope that this annual event will continue to grow and raise funds for those in need." Last year's event raised over $4,000 with funds allocated towards medical care for indigent patients.

The Captain's Choice tournament will be held at Sapona Country Club in Lexington and begin with a box lunch at 12:00 noon. A shotgun start is scheduled for 1:00 pm. In addition to lunch, participants will receive snacks, beverages and range balls. A number of awards and prizes will be given.

For more information about this event, registration or sponsorship opportunities, please contact Tammy Troublefield at 475-5444 or ttroublefield@hospiceofdavidson.org. More information and registration forms may also be found at www.hospiceofdavidson.org or www.wynncom.com.
